

Salisbury Public Library Winter Programs 2012

Open Hours

Until June 17, 2012

Tuesday	10am-12pm & 1-5pm
Wednesday	1-5pm & 6-8 pm
Thursday	10am-12pm & 1-5pm
Friday	10am-12pm & 1-5pm
Saturday	10am-12pm & 1-5pm

Teen Book Club

January 31st @ 4:00 pm
February 27th @ 4:00 pm

Tell us what books you love and hate, and learn about some great new books in the library.

Teen Advisory Board

We want your input!

We're looking for members in grades 7-12 to help plan library events and services for teens.

You must be able to meet for an hour once a month. Free snacks!

Contact the library if interested.

LEGO BLOCK PARTY

Wednesday February 15th
6:30—7:30 pm (Ages 6+)

Build your best LEGO Creation.
Parents are welcome to play!

Story Time

Fridays at 10:00 am
in February and March

A 30-minute program of stories, songs, and fun literacy-building activities for ages 2-5.

Used Book Sale

Come browse the ongoing book sale.

All profits go towards the purchase of new books for the library.

Hardcovers $1.00 Softcovers $0.50

Hackmatack Book Club

The Hackmatack Club is looking for members in grades 4- 6. Vote on which Canadian author should win the Hackmatack Award. Each meeting will feature activities relating to the nominated Hackmatack books.

Tuesday January 31 @ 3:00 pm

Tuesday February 28 @ 3:00 pm

Tuesday March 27 @ 3:00 pm

Even if you can't make it to the meetings, you can still read the books and vote on the winner.

Booklovers Reading Club

Wednesday February 8 at 6:15 pm

Love in the Time of Cholera by Gabriel García Márquez

Wednesday March 14 at 6:15 pm

*The Last Honest Man: Mordecai Richler,
An Oral Biography* by Michael Posner